

What?

In collaboration with the Education and Manpower Bureau, this event provides head teachers, teachers, educators and practitioners with the opportunity to examine and discuss some of the challenges facing school leadership.

The event will be conducted in English.

Why?

To host a platform that will initiate mutually beneficial dialogue between relevant parties in Hong Kong and the UK in exchanging ideas and expertise, sharing best practices between both countries which may lead to future collaborations.

Who?

- All serving and aspiring school leaders in kindergarten, primary, secondary and special schools in Hong Kong.
- UK Headteachers taking part in the International Placement of Headteachers visit.

Programme

9.00 – 9.30 a.m.	Registration
9.30 – 9.35 a.m.	Welcome
9.35 – 10.30 p.m.	Professional development seminar - You Can't Do It Yourself Current headship is making new and increasing demands on headteachers and other school leaders. This presentation will explore what effective leaders are doing to build emotionally resonant environments in order to lead change and to both empower and enable staff to share the leadership which will enhance the life chances and achievement of every child. By Ms Patricia Clark, London Centre for Leadership in Learning, Institute of Education, University of London
10.30 – 10.45 a.m.	Tea break
10.45 – 12.00 p.m.	Group discussions
12.00 – 12.30 p.m.	Plenary, round-up and evaluation
12.30 – 1.45 p.m.	Lunch
1.45 – 2.00 p.m.	Professional development workshops (to be held simultaneously) Workshop 1 – Leadership Styles and Their Effect on School Climate Facilitator: Ms Patricia Clark This workshop will explore the effect that a range of leadership styles has on the climate of the school, that is, "the way it feels to work here". This, in turn, has a proven effect on the performance, however measured, of school performance. Workshop 2 – Early Years Education Facilitators: UK Headteachers Workshop 3 – Personalised Learning Facilitators: UK Headteachers
1.45 – 2.00 p.m.	Registration
2.00 – 2.15 p.m.	Introduction to topics by facilitators
2.15 – 3.45 p.m.	Group discussions
3.45 – 4.00 p.m.	Plenary, round-up and evaluation
4.00 p.m.	End

What?

In collaboration with the Education and Manpower Bureau, this event provides deputy heads and middle managers with the opportunity to examine areas of excellence in leadership in the UK.

The event will be conducted in English.

Why?

To host a platform that will initiate mutually beneficial dialogue between relevant parties in Hong Kong and the UK in exchanging ideas and expertise, sharing best practices between both countries.

Who?

- All serving and aspiring deputy heads and middle managers in kindergarten, primary, secondary and special schools in Hong Kong.

Programme

9.00 – 9.30 a.m.	Registration
9.30 – 9.35 a.m.	Welcome
9.35 – 10.30 p.m.	Professional development seminar - Distributed Leadership and How This Impacts on School Improvement Building capacity and empowering staff to share leadership is one of the ways in effectively managing and leading school. This presentation will put an emphasis on how deputy heads and middle leaders play critical roles for working together with headteachers to improve schools and raise standards and pupil achievement. By Ms Patricia Clark, London Centre for Leadership in Learning, Institute of Education, University of London
10.30 – 11.00 a.m.	Tea break
11.00 – 12.00 noon	Group discussions
12.00 – 12.30 p.m.	Plenary, round-up and evaluation